1) LEAP FROGGING STATLERS (:23)

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley. Last week on American Country Countdown, Dan Seals was hoping to score his first number one hit with "MY BABY'S GOT GOOD TIMING". Well, he was held at number two as the Statler Brothers leap-frogged Dan to rack up their third number one with "MY ONLY LOVE". Who'll be on top of Billboard's chart this week? You'll find out here on American Country Countdown.

2) RELATIVELY SPEAKING (:22)

Hi, this is Bob Kingsley. Four of the songs on American Country Countdown last week were by acts that included related family members. There was Alabama with it's three cousins...the two Bellamy Brothers...the four Forester Sisters and the two Reid Brothers who make up half of the Statler Brothers. Find out how all these family affairs do this week here on American Country Countdown.

3) COUNTRY GROWTH IN 80'S (:27)

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley. On American Country Countdown last week, Billboard's chart reflected the rise of many new stars in country music in the 1980's. No less than 14 acts on our survey scored their first country chart record between 1980 and now, including three in last week's top ten...Lee Greenwood, Exile and Dan Seals. Follow country's past, present and future stars this week on American Country Countdown.

And John Fogerty debuted with his first country chart record called "BIG TRAIN FROM MEMPHIS." Find out how all your favorite artists are doing on the national music scene this week on American Country Countdown.

5) MAYBE COMIN' IN (:21)

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley. This week on American Country Countdown, there are a lot of new established artists bubbling under Billboard's Top 40. The most likely to debut are Charly McClain, Ronnie McDowell and Keith Stegall...while The Maines Brothers, Nicolette Larson and John Conlee have enough steam to come in too. Find out who makes it here on American Country Countdown.
