1) GIRL'S DAY AT THE TOP (:20)

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley. Last week on American Country Countdown it was a ladies day at the top of the survey as Anne Murray moved into the #2 spot and The Judds scored their third number one song in less than a year with "GIRL'S NIGHT OUT." Find out if the ladies come out on top again this week here on American Country Countdown.

2) CLASS OF '83 DEBUTS (:19)

Hi, this is Bob Kingsley. All three debut songs on American Country Countdown last week had something in common...they were all by artists who scored their first chart record in 1983...Kathy Mattea, Dan Seals and Exile. Check out how the class of '83 does this week here on American Country Countdown.

3) ALABAMA COULD TIE THE RECORD (:23)

Hello, I'm Bob Kingsley. Last week on American Country Countdown Alabama moved into position to possibly score their 16th number one hit in a row on Billboard's country chart. Now if they go number one this week, they'll tie the record for the most consecutive number one songs set by Sonny James. Find out if they make it here on American Country Countdown.

4) FAMILY VS. FAMILY (:24)

Hi this is Bob Kingsley. It was family vying with family on American Country Countdown last week. You had Mark Gray at #14 moving up on his cousins the Forester Sisters at #12. While Ricky Skaggs at #24 was gaining ground on his wife (Sharon) and his inlaws The Whites at #21. Find out how these friendly family feuds do this week on American Country Countdown.

5) NEW DEBUTS (:18)

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley. There could be five debut songs this week on American Country Countdown. Louise Mandrell, Jimmy Buffett, Steve Wariner, Lee Greenwood and Willie Nelson all have a shot to make it into Billboard Magazine's top forty. See if they all make it here on American Country Countdown.
