1) STAR SEARCHERS MOVE TOWARD TOP (:15)

Hi, this is Bob Kingsley. Last week on American Country Countdown Reba McEntire moved toward country superstardom as she collected her 4th number one hit on Billboard's country chart. See how this Oklahoman sweetheart does this week here on American Country Countdown.

2) SAWYER BROWN READIED FOR FIRST #1 (:20)

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley. This week on American Country Countdown, if the group Sawyer Brown can stave off the rush of Charly McClain and Eddie Rabbitt, they could score their very first number one country hit...which would be no small feat with only their second chart record ever. Find out who makes #1 right here on American Country Countdown.

3) MILSAP WORTHY OF NOTE (:27)

Hi, This is Bob Kingsley. Last week on American Country Countdown one of the artists worthy of note was Ronnie Milsap. Now in his 12 year recording career he's racked up 37 chart records including 32 top ten and 25 #1 hits. Now that's averaging better than two number one hits a year which is not bad for a fellow once trained for nothing but basket weaving. Watch Ronnie's progress this week on American Country Countdown.

4) THREE NEW SONGS TAKE BOW (:25)

Hi, this is Bob Kingsley. Last week on American Country Countdown three songs bowed into Billboard Magazine's Top Forty. "HELLO MARY LOU" by The Statler Brothers debuted highest at #35...followed by Eddy Raven's "OPERATOR, OPERATOR" at 39 and newcomer Judy Rodman's "I'VE BEEN HAD BY LOVE BEFORE" eased into #40. Check out how all the new arrivals do this week on American Country Countdown.

5) THE DEBUTERS TO BE (:18)

Hello, I'm Bob Kingsley. This week on American Country Countdown a total of five acts could debut songs in Billboard's Top 40. Watch for Charly Pride, The Wright Brothers, John Schneider, Earl Thomas Conley and Kenny Rogers to all join the action right here on American Country Countdown.
