- 1) GREENWOOD STRUGGLES TO TOP (:20)
Hi, this is Bob Kingsley. Last week on A.C.C. Lee Greenwood battled back after losing momentum twice in the top five to score the number one song on the survey. "I DON'T MIND THE THORNS" became Lee's fourth Billboard chart topper and we'll find out if he can hang on to number one this week on American Country Countdown.
- 2) E.T.C. #1 TO BE? (:21)
Hello, I'm Bob Kingsley. On A.C.C last week the battle for #1 was between Lee Greenwood and Earl Thomas Conley. Now Lee won out, but Earl still has momentum at #2. Earl could make it this week if he can move Lee out and fight off the hard charge of George Strait. Find out who's top dog this week on American Country Countdown.
- 3) THEORY OF RELATIVITY (:26)
Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley. It looked like a tribute to families last week on American Country Countdown. There were no less than five acts in the forty that contained immediate family members... including the father and two daughter team of The Whites...the four Forester Sisters...the mother and daughter duo called The Judds... the two Bellamy Brothers and the two Reid brothers that make up half The Statlers. Follow all these family affairs this week on American Country Countdown.
- 4) GARY MORRIS Xs 2 (:20)
Hi, this is Bob Kingsley. Last week on A.C.C. Gary Morris fans heard Gary times two. Gary was at #25 with his single "I'LL NEVER STOP LOVING YOU"... and there he was again at #29 along with Crystal Gayle and their hot duet called "MAKIN' UP FOR LOST TIME". Follow all your favorite stars this week here on American Country Countdown.

5) THREE BIG NAME DEBUTERS TO COME (:26)

Hello, this is Bob Kingsley. This week on American Country Countdown the three songs most likely to debut in Billboard's Top Forty are by three of the biggest names in American music. Watch for "THE DEVIL'S ON THE LOOSE" to come in for Waylon Jennings... "IT'S JUST A MATTER OF TIME" for Glen Campbell...and Mr. George Jones should make it with "THE ONE I LOVED BACK THEN". See if all these heavies join us this week on American Country Countdown.
