1) ROLL ON RECORD ROLL ON (:21)

Hi, this is Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown. Last week on the survey, Alabama should have been singing "Roll on record roll on" because they extended their record string of consecutive number one hits to 19 in a row with "SHE AND I" Find out if they can savor the achievement for another week this week on American Country Countdown!

2) MERLE'S THE SONG TO WATCH (:31)

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley on American Country Countdown...last week on the survey the song to watch in the top ten was Merle Haggard's "I HAD A BEAUTIFUL TIME". Now it inched closer to number one and if it makes it Merle will become the leader with the most solo #1 hits. Merle currently shares the lead at 34 #1s each with Conway Twitty who was also moving up fast in the twenties last week with his current song. Find out how close Merle gets to the record this week on American Country Countdown!

3) RICKY THE 10TH (:23)

Hello, I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown. Last week Ricky Skaggs's 10th number one hit was just a notch away. And, if Ricky's song "CAJUN MOON" is going to go the distance this week, he'll have to move Alabama out of the top spot and fight off Don Williams at #3. Find out how it all comes out this week on American Country Countdown!

4) GROUPS ARE IN (:21)

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley. Last week on American Country Countdown Billboard's country top 40 showed that groups are in in country music. There were no less than 12 songs on the survey by acts that included two or more permanent members including the #1 song by Alabama. Check in to see how your favorite group is doing this week on American Country Countdown.

5) FOUR NEW ONES COMING ALONG (:26)

Hi, this is Bob Kingsley on American Country Countdown. Last week just two songs debuted into Billboard's top forty...but this week that number should double to four. Watch for songs by John Anderson, Charlie Daniels and Dobie Gray to come in. And there's another song by Barbara Mandrell with the Oakridge Boys. Now would you call it a single, duet or quintet? See if they all make it this week on American Country Countdown!
