There are no network commercials in this special and there are twelve minutes of local availability.

We suggest an announcer voice one of the following speeches to open the Trio Special:

Now, _____ presents a very special hour with three talented and charismatic ladies who are the talk of the country...Linda Ronstadt, Emmylou Harris, and Dolly Parton. The Trio.

Every week here at _____, it's our pleasure to present American Country Countdown with Bob Kingsley. As you know, what Bob usually does is to count down the 40 biggest country music hits of the week according to Billboard Magazine. Along with the countdown, he also brings us interesting information about country songs and country stars, and to get that information, Bob and his production crew do a lot of research and interviewing. Earlier this month, Bob interviewed Dolly Parton, Londa Ronstadt and Emmylou Harris about their new 'Trio' album. Bob says that during the interview, the special nature of the whole 'Trio' project really came through to him. Kingsley considers the 'Trio' album a major event in country music. So, for the next hour, here on _____, Bob Kingsley reports on a special album and three special ladies. Here is "The Trio Special."
