DOUBLE ACTS DOING DOUBLE DUTY (:25)

Hi, this is Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown...and last week we had two hot acts giving us double doses of their talent. Rosanne Cash was at #11 with her current record, and she debuted in a duet with her husband Rodney Crowell at #34. Plus, K.T. Oslin sang along with Alabama at #3, and debuted her new single in at #33. Check out how K.T. and Rosanne are doing this week on American Country Countdown.

BATTLE FOR MOST #1s HEATS UP (:24)

I'm Bob Kingsley, and last week on American Country Countdown Merle Haggard collected his 35th #1 hit tying Conway Twitty record for the most solo #1 songs on Billboard's country chart. Meanwhile, Conway roared into the top ten at #7 with the song that he hopes will give him back sole possession of the record. Follow the battle of the biggest guns in country music this week on American Country Countdown.

FOUR EXCITING DEBUTS (:24)

I'm Bob Kingsley and last week the debut songs into American Country Countdown featured four of the hottest acts of the 1980s. Including, Holly Dunn, T. Graham Brown, a duet by Rosanne Cash and Rodney Crowell and the new one from K.T. Oslin. Find out how these and all your favorite stars are doing on the survey of Billboard magazine's top 40 country songs this week on American Country Countdown.

TWINKLE TWINKLE TOP STARS (:25)

I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown, and in recent months Merle Haggard has put out a couple of records that didn't hit the top of our charts. But, before the words career slump could form on people's lips Merle released "TWINKLE TWINKLE LUCKY STAR" and last week that song became Merle's 35th #1 country hit. Find out whose lucky star shines at the top this week on American Country Countdown.
