1. TRAVIS TRAVELS TO THE TOP :26

Hi, this is Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown...where every week country music's biggest stars enter their hits into the most important country music sweepstakes in the land. The top prize?...the number one spot on the official Billboard chart. Last week that lucky number came up for Randy Travis' "DEEPER THAN A HOLLER", and this week the top prize is up for grabs again as we count down the forty biggest country hits to #1 on American Country Countdown.

2. FORESTER SISTERS KEEP UP PERSONAL RECORD :29

I'm Bob Kingsley, and this week on American Country Countdown the act to watch is the Forester Sisters. Since first appearing on our survey in 1985, every one of their 10 single releases has broken the top ten including, "SINCERELY" which moved up to #8 last week. Now four of those have gone the distance to #1, and the Foresters sincerely hope they can collect top song #5. Find out how this Georgia foursome and all your favorites are doing this week on American Country Countdown.

3. TWO HOT YOUNG SINGER-SONGWRITERS IN SEARCH OF FIRST #1 :26

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown, and this week two of Country music's hottest young singer-songwriters are each closing in on their first solo number one hit. Last week Dwight Yoakam was at #6 with his self-penned, "I SANG DIXIE", while Skip Ewing wrote and sang his way to #4 with "BURNIN' A HOLE IN MY HEART." They're burnin' up the top ten and hoping to make it even hotter as we count 'em down this week on American Country Countdown.

4. DEBUTS ALL LAMENTS OF LOVE :27

I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown, and last week all three debut songs were about lost love with George Strait singing about his "BABY'S GOTTEN GOOD AT GOODBYE", while newcomer Lorrie Morgan's "TRAINWRECK OF EMOTION" was chugging up the line toward Emmy Lou Harris', "HEARTBREAK HILL." But these lost love laments are just part of the treasure of country hits that you'll find as we count down country music's forty biggest this week on American Country Countdown.
