1. RAVEN WINGS WAY TO #1 :30

I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown ... and last week the current hit by a man named Raven took flight and perched at the very pinnacle of the Billboard Country Chart. The song "Bayou Boys" earned Bayou boy Eddy Raven his 6th #1 hit. Well, on this week's show the other songs that could soar to the highest height are those of Dolly, Randy or Reba. Find out who views the world of Country music from the top perch and check on all your favorites this week on American Country Countdown.

2. TOP TEN HEATED UP BY NEWCOMER, NEW STAR, SUPERSTAR :28

This is Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown ... and last week the top ten of our survey was heated up by the songs of a newcomer, a new star and a superstar. The newcomer is Mary Chapin Carpenter collecting her first top ten ... the act recently risen to star status is Shenandoah with their 5th ... and collecting his 35th top ten was Kenny Rogers. They'll be forces to be reckoned with near the top as we count 'em down again this week on American Country Countdown.

3. THE COUNTDOWN REVEALS WHAT YOU WANT TO KNOW :30

I'm Bob Kingsley and every week American Country Countdown reveals to you the things you most want to know about the biggest hits in the land. Things like will Clint Black and The Desert Rose Band debut new ones in the forty ... or whether Don Williams and Ronnie Milsap jump to the top ten ... and you'll know if it's Randy Travis or Dolly Parton who'll ease their hits into the #1 spot in the Nation. All these things and much more about Billboard's Country Chart activity will be revealed to you this week on American Country Countdown.

4. MOST SUCCESSFUL LADY IN HISTORY TO #1 :29

I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on American Country Countdown the most successful female artist in Country music history could succeed once again and score her 23rd #1 Country hit. Dolly Parton's self-penned winner called "Yellow Roses" is just one move away from the top of our survey and looking good. So you should look in this week to see if Dolly takes the high ground and who else among your favorite singers and songs gain ground when the count begins this week on American Country Countdown.
