1. GARTH BROOKS BREAKS INTO #1 COLUMN :30

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week the song called "If Tomorrow Never Comes" made sure Garth Brooks's first #1 hit came to him. It moved up a notch to give Garth his first chart topper with only his second chart record. Well, that answers the question who was at #1 last week ... but, who'll sit atop the Billboard Country Chart this week? Will it be Shenandoah, Lorrie Morgan or Ronnie Milsap? They're all hovering high in the top five and will make their moves toward the pinnacle of popularity this week on American Country Countdown.

2. SHENANDOAH HOPING TO MAKE '89 A THREE BAGGER :28

I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on American Country Countdown the act to watch is Shenandoah ... you see, when 1989 began they had no number one hits to their credit ... but if their hit called "Two Dozen Roses" moves up a notch they'll finish '89 with three chart toppers for the year. They're doing great ... and if you want to check up on all your favorite singers and songs ... then American Country Countdown is the place to be this week when we begin the count at number 40 and don't stop until we reach that #1 Country hit.

3. TOP TEN COULD BE BITTERSWEET FOR MORGAN :30

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on American Country Countdown Lorrie Morgan could face a sweet and bitter-sweet situation. The sweet is that Lorrie's hit called "Out Of Your Shoes" is currently climbing in the top ten. The bitter-sweet is that her late husband Keith Whitley's hit called "It Ain't Nothin'" could move up to join Lorrie in the top ten as well this week. Find out if that happens and follow all the drama and action of our official survey of the forty biggest country hits in the nation this week on American Country Countdown.
