1. ALABAMA MAKES IT 27 :32

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week we announced something that we'd done 26 times before ... that Alabama had the #1 hit on American Country Countdown. The group's 27th chart topper is the title tune from their album called "Southern Star" as they continue to polish their superstar image. But will the boys from Bama hand in at #1 for multiple weeks as Clint Black recently did ... or will Ricky Van Shelton or Eddie Rabbitt challenge them for top ranking this week? Find out as we count down to that #1 song in the Nation this week on American country Countdown.

2. THREE ACTS GIVE CASE OF DEJA VU :31

I'm Bob Kingsley and last week Paul Overstreet, Lorrie Morgan and Garth Brooks each had two separate hits in the Countdown. Paul has "All The Fun" and "Seeing My Father In Me", Lorrie debuted her latest called "Five Minutes" which joined "Out Of My Shoes" in the survey ... and Garth's "If Tomorrow Never Comes" was hanging in there along with his most recent release called "Not Counting You". So, find out how Paul and Paul, Lorrie and Lorrie, Garth and Garth and all your favorite singers and songs are doing this week on American Country Countdown.

3. THREE STRONGEST DEBUT CONTENDERS :35

Hi, this is Bob Kingsley ... and this week on American Country Countdown the three songs most likely to debut are by a guy, a gal and a guy-gal duo. The guy is newcomer Alan Jackson who's hoping to score his first top forty tune. The girl is rising star, Mary Chapin Carpenter ... and the duo is a winning combination of Vince Gill and Reba McEntire singing a tune about Oklahoma, their mutual home state. Their songs were bubbling under the forty and could break into our musical melee this week as the forty biggest hits in the Nation battle for the #1 spot on American Country Countdown.
