1. TRAVIS TAKES TOP FOR THE 11TH TIME :24

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on ACC the song called "Hard Rock Bottom Of Your Heart" lifted Randy Travis's heart as it bounded up to the top of our survey and became his 11th number one Country hit. Will "Hard Rock Bottom Of Your Heart" hang onto the highest height of the countdown ... or will Paul Oversreet's "Seein' My Father In Me" take over the high ground of Billboard's Country chart? Find out this week on American Country Countdown.

2. RISING STARS SET TO RISE TO TOP TEN :29

I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown ... and this week watch for two rising stars to rise to the top ten on Billboard's Country chart. Mary Chapin Carpenter's current hit called "Quittin' Time" is showing no signs of quitting as it's poised to become her 2nd top ten tune. Plus, newcomer Alan Jackson's "Here In The Real World" is set to place Alan in the really important world of top ten artists for the very first time. Follow the progress of these new stars and catch up on all your favorites this week on American Country Countdown.

3. FOUR SONGS CHARGE THE FORTY THIS WEEK AS DEBUTS :26

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week four songs debuted on American Country Countdown to begin their assault on the high ground of the Billboard Country chart. They include the first Country chart song for hit songwriter turned singer Mac McAnally ... the hit-hunting Kentucky Headhunters, Travis Tritt ... and debuting highest for the week, the latest from Shenandoah. Find out how they're all doing and see who treads the highest terrain at #1 this week on American Country Countdown.
