1. TRAVIS FOUR WEEKS AT #1 ... ALIVE FOR FIVE? :33

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown, Randy Travis did something that hadn't happened since 1978. His tune called "Hard Rock Bottom Of Your Heart" claimed it's fourth consecutive week at #1 ... that is the first song to do that since Willie and Waylon's "Mamas Don't Let Your Babies Grow Up To Be Cowboys" rode the top spot for four straight weeks 12 years ago. Can Randy keep his streak at the top alive for five? Or will Garth Brooks or Lorrie Morgan's hit take over the highest grounds of the Billboard Country chart this week? Find out on American Country Countdown!

2. MILSAP MOVES TOWARD MAGIC MARK :35

I'm Bob Kingsley and this week the artist to watch on American Country Countdown is Ronnie Milsap. Ronnie is currently moving up the chart with his 44th solo top ten hit. And, if his tune "Stranger Things Have Happened" makes it to #1 ... a wonderful thing will happen for Ronnie. It will put him in a three-way tie with Conway Twitty and Merle Haggard for the most solo #1 Country hits at 35 top songs each. Find out if Ronnie moves closer to an historic #1 and check out the progress of all your favorite singers and songs this week on American Country Countdown.

3. BLACK VELVET TWICE A HIT :27

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week one of the debut songs into the top forty was already a big hit before it entered the survey. It's "Black Velvet", a song that recently topped the Pop charts for Canadian singer, Alannah Myles. Last week, singer Robin Lee's Country version of "Black Velvet" hit our Country top forty. Will "Black Velvet" scale the heights of two music charts? Find out how it's doing this week as we count down the biggest Country hits in the Nation on American Country Countdown.
