1. SEALS PUTS SEAL AT #1 :27

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown Dan Seals put his seal at #1 again as his latest self-penned sensation called "Love On Arrival" arrived at the top of our survey. Now Dan has the potential to park at the peak of popularity for a while ... that is if he can slow down the upward mobility of the latest hit from a man named Milsap. Check out the drama from the bottom to the top of the Billboard chart this week on American Country Countdown.

2. JACKSON WORKING ON FIRST #1 :36

I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on American Country Countdown two singers are poised on the threshold of career milestones. First Alan Jackson's hit called "Here In The Real World" moved up to #3 last week within striking distance of his first #1 song. Plus, Ronnie Milsap's "Stranger Things Have Happened" moved up to #2 last week. That's close enough to hit the top ... which would tie him with Merle Haggard and Conway Twitty for having the most solo number one songs in chart history with 35 each. Find out whose milestone is reached this week on American Country Countdown.

3. DEBUTS BY A DUO, A DESERT ROSE AND A DALTON :25

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week the debut songs on American Country Countdown were by a Dalton, a Desert Rose, and a Duo. That's Lacy J. Dalton and her newest called "Black Coffee" ... The Desert Rose Band with "In Another Lifetime" and the duo of The Judds came in with their latest called "Guardian Angels". And we're the guardians of the Billboard chart which we'll count down from #40 to #1 this week on American Country Countdown.
