1. GEORGE STRAIT HAS QUINTUPLETS :33

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown George Strait had quintuplets. That is, George collected his fifth consecutive Billboard chart showing his name at #1 with "Love Without End, Amen". Now, George may wait before he frames that quintuplet of charts ... to see if this week he's sextupley proud of his hit song. But, Garth Brooks could two-step his way into the top spot with "The Dance" or Randy Travis' "He Walked On Water" could stroll forward to the pinnacle. So check it out, as we count 'em down this week on American Country Countdown.

2. TANYA AND T. GRAHAM DEJA VU ALL OVER AGAIN :29

I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on American Country Countdown Tanya Tucker and T. Graham Brown could give us a double dose of their talents as they double up on a duet. Both artists currently have solo hits in our survey ... but, bubbling under with a good chance of debuting this week is their duet called "Don't Go Out". So, find out if hits by Tanya, by T. Graham ... and by T. Graham and Tanya are doing battle this week as we count down the forty biggest country hits in the Nation on American Country Countdown.

3. CLINT BLACK ACT TO WATCH :39

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on American Country Countdown the song to watch is Clint Black's newest release called "Nothing's News." It's the fifth single from his debut album called "Killin' Time" and this song could help Clint equal one record and set another. You see, if "Nothing's News" goes on to #1, it will tie Rodney Crowell's country music record set last year for five number one's from one album. But, it will also be the first time ever that an artist has hit the number one spot in the Nation with their first five single releases. So check out Clint's progress toward two country milestones this week on American Country Countdown.
