1. SEALS SAILS TO #1 :26

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week the song called "Good Times" took a good jump in the top five ... sailing from #4 directly to #1, giving Dan Seals his 11th chart topping hit. Will "Good Times" spend more time at the top? Will the good times roll for your favorite singers and songs? Well, find out along with us as we count down the 40 biggest hits of the week on American Country Countdown.

2. NEW STAR, STAR GROUP, AND SUPERSTAR DEBUT IN TOP 10 :25

I'm Bob Kingsley ... and the top ten of the Billboard chart was heated up last week by a top new star, a top band and a superstar. Debuting their hits into the top ten were rising star Travis Tritt ... the blazing hot band called Shenandoah ... and Mr. Waylon Jennings. Find out if these stars rise higher in the higher ranks ... and see who has the highest ranking song in the Nation at #1 this week on American Country Countdown.

3. FLOOD OF DEBUTS SPICE UP THE FORTY :26

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and this week the thing to do on American Country Countdown is to check up on the flood of debut songs that came in the survey last week. There were seven new ones in all, including the latest from Carlene Carter, Rodney Crowell, a Kathy Mattea-Tim O'Brien duet, Shelby Lynne, Steve Wariner, Lee Greenwood and Alabama. That's a lot of talent and terrific tunes to track through the top forty this week on American Country Countdown.
