1. ALABAMA'S NUMBER PUNCHED UP AT #1 :26

I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown ... y'know, if the world of country radio was a jukebox, the song punched up to play most often last week by America's radio stations was "Jukebox In My Mind" by Alabama. That tune became the boys from 'Bama's 28th chart topper and they're hoping it'll be number A-1 on the top 40 jukebox again this week. Find out what happens at the top and see what songs grab the other 39 places of honor for the week on American Country Countdown.

2. ALAN JACKSON'S WANTED POSTER NEAR #1 :29

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown singer Alan Jackson hung his wanted poster at #3 in the Nation. What Alan wants is his first #1 Billboard chart hit, and he's hoping his song called "Wanted" can move up to popularity peak this week. To do it, he'll have to unplug Alabama's "Jukebox In My Mind", which currently rules the top-of-the-chart territory. So, be on hand to find out what happens in the world of country music this week on American Country Countdown.

3. CARTER FAMILY MEMBER HIGH ON CHART :29

I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on American Country Countdown the act to watch is Carlene Carter. Last week, Carlene's song "I Fell In Love" made her the first member of the great Carter family to hit top ten in 23 years ... the last time was back in 1967 when her mother June Carter Cash and husband Johnny scored a #2 hit with "Jackson". Follow Carlene's progress as she carries on the family tradition ... while we carry the country tradition forward each week on American Country Countdown.
