1. DIFFIE LOOKING TO HIT ULTIMATE HOME RUN

This is Bob Kingsley on American Country Countdown and last year Clint Black became the first singer in 13 years to score a number one hit with his very first chart record. Well, this week there's another newcomer whose debut chart song could also hit the ultimate home run on the Billboard chart. It's a tune called "Home" by Joe Diffie sitting at #2 just a countdown away from the top of our survey. Find out if Joe Diffie brings his first hit on home this week on American Country Countdown.

2. REBA RISES TO THE #1 OCCASION

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown Reba McEntire rose to the occasion ... the occasion of scoring her 14th #1 hit, that is, with her song called "You Were Right". Well, that's enough trips to the heights for Reba to make the #1 spot feel like home. But, there's a song called "Home" by newcomer Joe Diffie sitting at #2 that could challenge Reba for top honors. Find out if Reba reigns or if Diffie's the difference at the top this week on American Country Countdown.

3. CLINT BLACK BACK ON ATTACK

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown Clint Black's newest release didn't just debut into the top forty, it mugged it. Clint's "Put Yourself in My Shoes" strong-armed its way nearly halfway up our survey to enter at #22 and it should have the muscle to bound even higher this week. Follow Clint's big debut ... and check out what's new on the Billboard country chart this week as we count down the hottest hits in the Nation on American Country Countdown.
