1. ALABAMA'S SUCCESS TO GO ON FOREVER? :31

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown the song called "Forever's As Far As I'll Go" made it seem like forever's as far as Alabama's success might go. Since 1980 they have never even come close to a failure on their way to scoring 31 consecutive top ten hits including 29 #1 songs ... And there's absolutely no sign that their career could slow down. But will country's super group hang on to the top spot again or will a new name sit at #1? Find out this week on American Country Countdown. (Local Tag)

2. TWO ARTISTS POISED TO JUMP TO FIRST #1 :28

I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on American Country Countdown Two Country Stars are within striking distance of collecting their very first billboard #1 song. Carlene Carter moved up to #3 last week with "Come On Back" ... Just behind Paul Overstreet who jumped four notches to #2 in the nation with "Daddy's Come Around" ... Well when the countdown comes around again (this week) either one of them could be sitting at #1 ... As you check in on all your favorite singers and songs this week on American Country Countdown. (Local Tag)

3. NEW NAMES MAKING NEW WAVES IN SURVEY :27

Hello, I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown ... And if you're not yet familiar with the names of Tippin, Crosby and Kennedy, you soon will be. They are Aaron Tippin, Rob Crosby, and Ray Kennedy all hot newcomers who've already ridden hit songs half way up our top 40. If you don't know who they are we'll be talkin' about them ... and playing you their first big hits as we count down the forty most popular country songs in the nation this week on American Country Countdown.
