1. ALAN JACKSON OUTFLANKS TOP FIVE CONTENDERS :30

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown a bold move landed Alan Jackson at #1 for the first time ever. Alan's "I'd Love You All Over Again" swung from #6 to number one out flanking strong Top 5 contenders, such as "If You Want Me To" by Joe Diffie, "Loving Blind" by Clint Black and Conway Twitty's "I Couldn't See You Leavin'". Will Alan be able to hold the high ground....or will somebody else raise the flag at #1 in the nation? Find out this week on American Country Countdown! (LOCAL TAG)

2. CONWAY NEARING SOLO 31 RECORD :27

I'm Bob Kingsley and the song to watch this week on American Country Countdown is "I Couldn't See You Leavin'" by Conway Twitty. That song was at #4 last week within striking distance of the top. If the song goes all the way it will give Conway his 36th Billboard solo #1more solo top songs than any other artist in history. Check in on Conway's quest and follow the progress of all the brightest and best in country music this week on American Country Countdown! (LOCAL TAG)

3. GILL AND CARPENTER JOIN THE ACTION :27

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week the two debut songs into our top forty survey were by two of country music's brightest young stars. "Pocket Full of Gold" came in for Vince Gill who's enjoying the greatest success of his career these days. Plus "Right Now" debuted for Mary Chapin Carpenter who's on everybody's list as the hottest new female act around. These bright spots should be adding to the glow as we count down the forty hottest country hits of the week on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)
