1. DOWN HOME AND FOLKSY TOP THE CHART :30

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown and for the last two weeks the top of our survey has proved that down home and folksy songs are still a country music staple. That's because the #1 song for the last three weeks has been "Down Home" a down home and folksy tune from Alabama and the #2 spot for the last two weeks has been a duet with a down home message called "Rockin' Years" by Dolly and Ricky Van Shelton. Now of course those songs represent just one color in the musical rainbow that we call country music we count down from #40 to #1 each week on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)

2. MILSAP ENTERS TOP TEN WITH POTENTIAL RECORD TYING SONG :35

I'm Bob Kingsley and last week Ronnie Milsap entered the top ten with a potentially history making song. Ronnie's "Are You Lovin' Me Like I'm Lovin' You" became his 45th solo top ten. But if it goes all the way to #1 it will tie a Billboard chart record. Currently Merle Haggard and Conway Twitty are tied for the most solo #1's with 35 each. And, if Ronnie's goes all the way, he'll make it a three way tie for the most solo #1 hits on the Billboard country chart. Follow Ronnie's progress and check on the chart position of all your personal favorites this week on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)

3. HIGHWAY 101 ACT TO WATCH :34

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on A.C.C. the song to watch is called "Bing Bang Boom" the title of which sort of describes the recent history of the act that performs it, Highway 101. You see, awhile back their lead singer Paulette Carlson said that she wanted to do a solo album, bing! Not only that, she later decided to leave the band altogether, bang! And then Highway 101 quickly found a talented replacement named Nikki Nelson and boom! They're back on the charts again. So check this new version of the band and follow all the action in the top forty this week on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)
