1. THE THUNDER "ROARS" :29
Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on A.C.C. the song called, "The Thunder Rolls" could've been called the thunder "~~rolls~~". That's because the Garth Brooks smash roared to the #1 spot in just six weeks on the chart arriving at the pinnacle in less than half the normal time it takes to make the top turf. Does that mean it's strong enough for the thunder to rumble at #1 again or can hot hits by Lorrie Morgan, Alan Jackson or Randy Travis change the weather in our winner's circle this week? Find out on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)
2. PRESIDENT POINTING TO TOP TEN :33
I'm Bob Kingsley and there's one song in the top ten on American Country Countdown that is shining like a beacon for President Bush. It's the Randy Travis hit called, "Point Of Light", a tune the Bush Administration asked writers, Don Schlitz and Thom Schuyler to write originally as just the theme song for the President's "Point Of Light" campaign. But, the song turned out with such a universal message, Randy Travis recorded it as a commercial country tune. So, join the President and watch the progress of Randy's hit and all your favorite singers and songs this week on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)
3. THREE DEBUTS BY THREE OF COUNTRY MUSIC'S BIGGEST STARS :30
Hello, I'm Bob Kingsley and the three debut songs into our American Country Countdown survey last week were by three of the brightest shining stars of country music. The toe-tapping tune called, "Liza Jane" jumped in for Vince Gill, Patty Loveless came aboard with her memorable "Blue Memories" and zooming into the countdown to debut highest was George Strait's "You Know Me Better Than That". And you know for sure that these strong artists are likely to be climbing higher when you check their progress and check out who hits #1 this week on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)
