1. JACKSON'S "JUKEBOX" PAYS OFF LIKE SLOT MACHINE :25

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown and these days, Alan Jackson's song about a jukebox is paying off for him more like a slot machine. For the last three weeks, everytime he's pulled the top forty handle, it's come up all cherries as "Don't Rock The Jukebox" hangs on to #1. Find out if Jackson hits the survey jackpot again and see who else is closing in on the top spot payoff this week on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)

2. TWO ENDURING ACTS HIT TOP TEN :33

I'm Bob Kingsley and when you look at the current top ten of our ACC survey, you see plenty of relatively new faces like Travis Tritt, Alan Jackson, Trisha Yearwood and Billy Dean. But, two long-time starring acts flexed their muscle as they debuted in the top ten. Alabama's "Here We Are" became their 33rd top ten song, while Don Williams picked up his 45th with "Lord Have Mercy On A Country Boy". Well, check out the progress of those country boys and follow the fortunes of all your favorite country music making guys and gals this week on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)

3. SHOE FILLERS ABOUND :35

I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown, and in the last year or so the musical question, 'Who's gonna fill their shoes?', was answered by new stars like Brooks, Jackson, Black, Tritt and several more. In fact, last week's ACC survey showed that there is a bunch of new talent coming along since six songs were by new acts enjoying their very first top forty tune, including Brooks & Dunn, Davis Daniel, McBride & The Ride, Diamond Rio, Hal Ketchum and Trisha Yearwood. So when you tune in this week you're gonna find out country music is still alive and well and growing on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)
