1. BROOKS & DUNN NOT DONE YET :27

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on ACC the duo of Brooks & Dunn found a way to prove it was not a fluke that they hit #1 in the nation with their first single release called, "Brand New Man". Kix Brooks and Ronnie Dunn simply kept hold of the top spot again last week flexing some real new-star staying power. Of course a 3rd week at #1 would really drive the point home, unless hard charging hits by Mary-Chapin Carpenter and Clint Black manage to drive them from the top of Mount Billboard. This action is only part of the attraction when we count 'em down again this week on American Country Countdown! (LOCAL TAG).

2. BLACK ON THE ATTACK :34

I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on ACC all you could say about Clint Black is that he's on the attack. That's because his song called, "Where Are You Now" roared into the top ten leaping from #11 all the way up to #4 on the Billboard chart. That's the kind of chart attack that could put him at #1 next week. But, Clint is just one of 40 important players in our weekly jousting match to determine who has the most popular songs in country music on American Country Countdown! (LOCAL TAG)

3. WEEKLY DRAMA FOR COUNTRY ARTISTS :34

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and you know when we count down the hits each week on ACC, the stars that sing them have more than just a passing interest in how their songs are doing. For instance, high chart positions can mean more records sales and better bux on the concert trail. New singers can make it or break it on how their first releases are doing, while some veterans fear that low scoring hits might show their career has slowed down and so on. So, there's a lot more riding on the numbers than you might think as we start at #40 and count 'em down to that #1 song on American Country Countdown! (LOCAL TAG)
