This program replaces show #52 for the weekend of December 28-29, 1991. It runs 7 hours, and contains the same inventory as the regular Countdown: 6 minutes/hour Network/6 minutes/hour Local.

1. BROOKS CLAIMS BRAGGING RIGHTS FOR SECOND WEEK :27

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and every week on American Country Countdown each act that enters their current hit in our top forty derby hopes their song will eventually enter the winner's circle at number one. Well, for the last two weeks the fellow with top song bragging rights in the club house has been Garth Brooks. The hit song he's riding is called, "Shameless", which is sure to break fast from the starting gate again when we count down the 40 thoroughbred hits of the week. Find out who's in the stretch run to #1 this week on American Country Countdown. (LOCAL TAG)

2. "FOREVER TOGETHER" TOGETHER WITH #1? :30

I'm Bob Kingsley and this week on American Country Countdown the song called "Forever Together" could put Randy Travis together with his 12th #1 hit. Randy is currently at #2 in the nation and is hoping to dislodge the two-week hold Garth Brooks' "Shameless" has on the top spot. Of course the battle for the top is just part of the action when the pride of country music offers up the forty hottest songs in the nation for us to count down to that #1 song. We'll take you up to the minute of today's country music this week on American Country Countdown! (LOCAL TAG)

3. MALE DOMINATED MUSIC? ... DON'T TELL THAT TO THE LADIES :28

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown and while country music may be a male dominated industry, you can't tell that to Patty Loveless, Trisha Yearwood and Reba McEntire. You see their current hits occupy the number 3, 4 and 5 spots respectively in the top ten of our survey and they all have a good shot at going number one. That proves it's a co-ed countdown ... so, check in on all your favorite ladies and gentlemen of country music this week on American Country Countdown! (LOCAL TAG)
