1. CLAY WALKER IS 4 FOR FOUR :26

I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown and like a good football team that's likely to score when it gets inside the ten yard line, Clay Walker is likely to score a number one hit if his song makes it to the top ten. Last week Clay's fourth top tenner, "If I Could Make A Living" became his fourth number one hit. Can Clay kick the extra point and stay at the top again this week? Find out when we kick things off again this week on American Country Countdown! [LOCAL TAG]

2. TRACTORS STUCK :21

Hi, Bob Kingsley here... and y'know, one of the most interesting bands to make our survey in recent history is 'The Tractors,' with their mix of boogie woogie, rock, and country. But for the past 3 weeks, the Tractors have been spinning their wheels at #13. Will they finally pull their hit, "Baby Like To Rock It" out of the #13 rut and plow into our top ten? Find out right here on American Country Countdown! [LOCAL TAG]

3. POWER RANGERS OF BILLBOARD CHART :22

I'm Bob Kingsley and last week, three acts made major moves up our survey. The Power Rangers of the Billboard chart are Aaron Tippin, who moved up eight, Mark Chesnutt, who ascended 10, and Brooks & Dunn bounded up 11 notches. So check out the progress of these chart crusaders and find out how all your other super heroes are doing this weekend on American Country Countdown! [LOCAL TAG]
