1. ANOTHER WEEK FOR PHIL? :27

Hi, Shadoe Stevens on AT40. As 1989 came to a close, Phil Collins was on top of the Billboard Chart with "Another Day In Paradise". But just below, Linda Ronstadt and Aaron Neville were climbing with their duet, "Don't Know Much". And Janet Jackson was causing a sensation with "Rhythm Nation". So, will Phil start the New Year at #1? Will Linda and Aaron take over the top? Or will Janet's rhythm rule? There's only one way to find out, when we count 'em down ... on American Top 40.

2. DEBUTING FOR A NEW YEAR :32

Hey, Shadoe Stevens on AT40, and here comes the first countdown of 1990. And when we last left the Billboard Chart at the close of 1989, these hits were climbing with debut-force: "Principal's Office", more rascally Rap from Young M.C. -- "Kickstart My Heart", subtle as a flying mallet from Motley Crue -- "Steamy Windows", more hit heat from Tina Turner -- and "Opposites Attract", a new one from the Top New Woman of last year, Paula Abdul. Will they all join us for the first chart-charge of the decade? Ah, D'Shadoe knows, on American Top 40.
