1. WHAT WILL THE NEW YEAR BRING? :23
Hi, Shadoe Stevens here. And a few weeks ago, for the last weekly countdown of 1988...Poison ended the year sitting on top of their smash, "EVERY ROSE HAS ITS THORN." But what will the new year bring? Will Bobby Brown make number one his first "PREROGATIVE" this year?...or will Phil Collins begin the year with his "TWO HEARTS" beating at number one? Find out on the only official countdown of Billboard Magazine's hottest hits...here on American Top 40.

2. HOWDY DOODY :27
Hi, I'm Shadoe Stevens. And yes, the red-headed hit maker is back for 1989. The young british buck with red hair, and the deep, soulful voice, Rick Astley, is climbing the official Billboard chart once again. Last year, he scored three top ten hits, including the number one smashes, "NEVER GONNA GIVE YOU UP" AND "TOGETHER FOREVER." And now, he returns with the first hit from his new album...it's called "SHE WANT'S TO DANCE WITH ME." Rick looks like he might be starting the year off right...debuting right here on American Top 40.

3. NEW YEAR'S POP PARTY :24
Hi, I'm Shadoe Stevens. And here on the pop chart, we're having a New Year's party, and the gang's all here. Right now, partying in the countdown is Michael Jackson, Phil Collins, Chicago, Bon Jovi, Tiffany, Duran Duran, Steve Winwood...and just about anyone who's anyone. So grab your party hat, your streamers, and turn up the radio...as we embark on one more glorious year of counting down the biggest hits on the official Billboard chart...here on American Top 40.

4. IT MUST BE TOO LATE :27
Hi, Shadoe Stevens here. And heavy metal is becoming a way of life in the countdown. In the last survey, those heavy metal mothers, Poison were at #1 with "EVERY ROSE HAS IT'S THORN." There's also the hot metal acts, Van Halen, White Lion, Joan Jett & The Blackhearts and...there's Def Leppard and Bon Jovi following up their number one songs with some new pulse pounders. Will heavy metal take over the world and change pop music as we know it? Find out as we count down the biggest hits on the Official Billboard Chart, every week on American Top 40.
