

RE: Show #821-2

TO: AMERICAN TOP 40 SUBSCRIBERS

FROM: Don Bustany, AT40 Producer

January 2, 1982

Casey's catching his breath after the year-end sprint, so we invited one of his old buddies from the golden Beatle days of KRLA to do the countdown for him this week.

This man is as well-known on the Coast for having produced the first Beatles concerts here as he is nation-wide for doing a few other things of note. It was during the Sixties that Casey was part of the KRLA deejay roster that included -- among others -- Bob Eubanks. Well, Eubanks jumped ship at the end of '66 to host The Newlywed Game, in more recent years hosting the TV coverage of The Rose Parade for Golden West Broadcasters, and all the while keeping his hand in artist management and concert promotion. There's hardly a name act in the business that Bob hasn't presented to Southern California audiences.

That's the on-camera, backstage, business side of the man. But it's his on-mike, radio side that Bob Eubanks brings to AT40 this week.

Happy New Year!
