TOPICAL PROMOS

AT40 PROMOS FOR SHOW #861-3 ARE LOCATED AT END OF 4A

DO NOT USE AFTER SHOW #861-3

1) SEVEN WAYS TO HIT THE TOP TEN (:24)

Hi, this is Casey Kasem. On American Top 40 this week, Bruce Springsteen has a shot at becoming only the second act in history to get seven top ten hits from one album. Bruce's seventh hit from "Born in the U.S.A.," "MY HOMETOWN," is currently at Number 13 on the official Billboard chart. Can he do it? Can he make the top ten? Join me for the record makers and record breakers--on American Top 40.

2) EVERYBODY DEBUT (:24)

This is Casey Kasem. It's anybody's game on the Billboard chart this week, because there are a lot of contenders for debuting in the countdown. Among them are the Canadian band, Rush, with "THE BIG MONEY"--a new group, Mike and The Mechanics, with "SILENT RUNNING"-- the band Asia, with "GO"-- and Ready for the World, ready with their latest song, "DIGITAL DISPLAY." If they make the Top 40, we'll be hearing them on American Top 40!

3) OLD TIMERS ON THE CHART (:23)

This is Casey Kasem. Last week on American Top 40, some real chart veterans were showing a lot of strength. Dionne Warwick and Friends were in with "THAT'S WHAT FRIENDS ARE FOR." Paul McCartney sizzled with "SPIES LIKE US." We'll find out how these veterans do, among all the newcomers, according to the official Billboard chart on American Top 40.

4) THE GODFATHER'S BACK (:19)

This is Casey Kasem. Last week on American Top 40, the Godfather of Soul returned to the countdown. The legendary James Brown has his first Top 40 hit in more than eleven years--the song "LIVING IN AMERICA." How high will "Butane" James flame on the official Billboard survey? We'll all be watchin' on American Top 40.
