1. This next band beat the Boss to the #1 spot on the Billboard Album Chart. It happened the week Bruce Springsteen released not one but two albums: the long-awaited "HUMAN TOUCH" and "LUCKY TOWN" blasted on to the chart at #2 & #3. Debuting above him in the top spot was "ADRENZALIZE" by Def Leppard. And, we asked singer Joe Elliot what that chart achievement felt like?

JOE ELLIOT ACTUALITY: (:32) "It was great, and we were like wow, it's still #1, it's like wow, #1 again! This went on for five weeks. If I'm totally honest with you, when "Hysteria" got to #1, it was probably the most excited we'd ever get about #1 because that was the first time we'd hit #1 in the states. Everybody was just leaping up and down, hugging each other, going, yes! We did do the same thing when 'Adrenalize' made #1, but I think it was exciting to think that the guy that represented in our eyes, the American Dream, this scuzzy little English band, were holding him from the #1 spot. It was a nice feeling. And that's no disrespect at Bruce Springsteen. It's over, I'm obviously going to be pushing for us more than I'm gonna be pushing for him."
