RE: SHOW #821-13

Casey is taking this week off.

Replacing him is a man who has worked in about as many markets as AMERICAN TOP 40 is heard in.

Lee Sherwood's first job was at KTNC in his home town of Falls City, Nebraska. Since then, his Winnebago has been parked at WQAM Miami during the mid-sixties and WFIL Philadelphia where he was Program Director in 1968. Then he handled national PD chores for WKNR Detroit and KIIS Los Angeles. This was followed by two years of independent consulting; then on to Program Director at WRC Washington; up to New York as Executive Producer for the NBC Radio Network (1973 - 1974); a six-year stint as morning man and PD at WMAQ Chicago; and for the last year and-a-half has been morning man at KHJ Los Angeles.
