Jetting in from the Big Apple to relieve the vacationing Casey Kasem this week on AMERICAN TOP 40 is none other than Bumper Morgan. Hailing from Vestal Center, New York, population 923, Bumper left home at an early age to join the Navy, not to sail the seven seas, but to become a communications technician. Which led him directly to the all-night shift at America's only station-in-a-sugar-cane-field, KAHU, Waipahu, Hawaii. Former PD and jock at such stations at WKOP, WENE, WNBF and WINR, Bumper is one of the ace personalities now featured at 99-X, WXLO, New York. He, his wife, Anne, and their two daughters, Candace and Barbara, reside in residential Paramus, New Jersey. Casey returns to the AT40 mike and the Arbitron Spring sweep next week.

LYRIC ALERT

The lyrics in "Roxanne" by the group, Police, may be sensitive in certain markets. The record comes on at #40 this week (Hour 1-A).
