RE: SHOW #852-2 Airing weekend of April 13-14
Date: April 4, 1985.

This is the weekend that Casey has been taking off each of the past three years to host the televised presentation of the AVA's, the American Video Awards. This show will air around the first week of May.

Meantime, back at the Countdown, the show goes on with Guest DJ Chuck Britton of WLS-AM, Chicago. Although this is the first time Chuck has subbed for Casey, he may sound familiar to a large part of our domestic audience because his evening show is pumped out by WLS's 50-thousand watts to 37 states.

Chuck's a native Chicagoan, but he's been around. His bachelor degree in communications is from California State University. Part of his four years with the Air Force were spent in Vietnam. His first job in radio was at WRTL in Rantoul, IL, in '71, and his deejaying continued in Decatur; Phoenix; Milwaukee; Minneapolis; Charlotte, NC; and Jacksonville, Fl, before landing him at WLS in '83.

His easy style and smile in his voice made him a comfortable choice to sit in for Casey this week.

A P.S. FROM TOM ROUNDS:

You should have just received a questionnaire asking for help in telling us how the recently inaugurated "TOPICAL" American Top 40 promos are doing.

Please do us a big favor and fill out this short, but very important questionnaire and drop it back in the mail.

And on that subject, there are no topical promos included in this AT40 show as Casey takes off for the Video Awards. Casey...and the topical promos...will be back next week.
