1. DASHING DEBUTS :31

Hey, Shadoe Stevens on AT40 and there were some dashing debuts in last week's countdown. Singer Johnny Gill from New Edition debuting with his #1 song on the Black Singles Chart, "Rub You The Right Way". There was Glenn Medeiros who sings a duet with the solo star formerly of New Edition, Bobby Brown. Their song is "She Ain't Worth It". And debuting on the hot 100 chart way up at #27 was a new one by New Kids On The Block, "Step By Step". Will they step to the top? How high will the others climb? Ah, D'Shadoe knows -- on American Top 40.

2. HOLD ON, ALL I WANNA DO IS VOGUE :30

Hi, Shadoe Stevens on AT40. As she takes her "Blonde Ambition" tour across the country, Madonna is still posing picture perfect at #1 with "Vogue". But there are contenders climbing up from below: Heart are at #2 but a beat away from the top with "All I Wanna Do Is Make Love To You". And there's the trio in harmony, Wilson Phillips, with "Hold On". Will they have a hold on #1 this week? Will Heart's pop palpitations take them to the pop peak? Or will Madonna be in vogue for a third week? There's only one way to find out -- when we count 'em down -- on American Top 40.
