1) G'DAY (:31)

G'day, this is Casey Kasem. For a moment there, I thought I was counting down the 'Australian' Top 40 (rather than American Top 40). Y'see, for the first time in the history of the Official Billboard Charts there are 4 Aussie bands in the countdown at the same time, all of them from the city of Sydney. There's Icehouse with "ELECTRIC BLUE", Midnight Oil with "BEDS ARE BURNING", The Church with "UNDER THE MILKY WAY", and INXS with "NEW SENSATION". Roll over Beethoven tell Paul Hogan the news, the Aussie's are here from the outback on American Top 40.

2) GRRRRR... (:25)

Hi, this is Casey Kasem. And ya know lately, the Countdown's been a den of rock 'n' roll felines. Stalking the Official Billboard Chart with their hit, "I'M STILL SEARCHIN'" are the Canadian Cats, Glass Tiger. Prowling right along side 'em is England's Def Leppard with "POUR SOME SUGAR ON ME". And scratching their way up the countdown for the first time, from New York and L.A., is White Lion with "WAIT". The chart's rockin and roaring on American Top 40.

3) OLD DUDES (:20)

Hi, this is Casey Kasem. And two of this week's debuts could come from two of the biggest singers in rock music history. There's that raspy rooster from England, Rod Stewart with his latest, "LOST IN YOU". And there's a solo hit from the Englishman who fronted the legendary Led Zeppelin, Robert Plant with "TALL COOL ONE". Rod and Robert look countdown bound on American Top 40.

4) HITCHIN' A RIDE... (:20)

Hi, this is Casey Kasem. Well she took her first hit, "BOYFRIEND", into the Top Ten. And now, the singer called Pebbles is back with a new one. She came cruisin' into the countdown last week with "MERCEDES BOY". How high will she ride on the Official Billboard Chart? We'll find out as we count down the biggest hit records by the most popular recording acts on American Top 40.
