1. SIMPLY CANNIBAL :27

Hey, Shadoe Stevens on AT 40. Last week, England's Fine Young Cannibals took their latest tribal dance, "Good Thing," to the top for the Billboard pop chart. But coming up from below are fellow Englishmen Simply Red, and their remake of a 1972 hit by Harold Melvin & The Blue Notes...the song "If You Don't Know Me By Now." Will Fine Young Cannibals cook on top again?...or will Simply Red paint the town their number one color? Ahhh...D'Shadoe knows...on American Top 40.

2. A NATION GONE BATS :22

Hi, Shadoe Stevens on AT 40. The entire country's going Batty, with the hottest film of the summer burning up the box office. And even the Billboard charts have gone bats. Last week that purple pop joker, Prince, winged his way up ten notches to number 12 with the weeks biggest mover, "Batdance." Prince looks bat-bound for top ten territory this week...on American Top 40.
