1. Next up, "I'M READY" -- Tevin Cambel's hit. It was written and produced by Babyface and Daryl Simmons. And Tevin told us about working with one of the hottest producing teams around:

TEVIN CAMPBELL ACTUALITY (:32) "Oh, they're great. Face and D are very talented, as you know. I mean they're just incredible and we were going to work together on the first album, but it clashed because they were still working on the "I'M YOUR BABY TONIGHT" Whitney Houston album. Big comeback for her, so they couldn't refuse that. So we promised each other we'd work together on the second album as we just had a great time. They're really crazy in the studio. I mean it's just like being at home but just singing you know. It was really cool."

2. Next is the new group from Manchester, England, M PEOPLE. They're a trio and the singer is Heather Small. She told us a little bit about their first hit, "MOVIN' ON UP."

M PEOPLE ACT (:22) "It's very positive. On one level it's about this female singing about this female, but on another level it's about taking control of a situation, the power is within yourself. Once there's breath in you, there's always hope."

3. Nothing can match the excitement, the thrill, of hitting #1. At least that's what I've been told. This next band has just had their first #1 record. They went to #1 with their first Top 40 hit in the U.S.A. and also topped charts around the world with their version of the Peter Frampton song "BABY I LOVE YOUR WAY." We talked to bandleader Quino of Big Mountain:

BIG MOUNTAIN ACT (:33) "Well, you know it's a little hectic to tell you the truth, but for the most part it's very gratifying, very exciting; it's a little scary. One thing we're trying to concentrate on is taking everything in and cherishing the moment, but keeping things level. Fortunately we have an organization that takes care of a lot of things for us, so the musicians can concentrate on what we have to do, which is music."
