1. DYNAMICALLY FUNKY DUO :25

Hey, Shadoc Stevens on AT 40...and...'evildoers beware'...and dance floor friends rejoice. There's a funky new Dynamic Duo climbing towards the top of the Billboard chart: It's Batman and...Prince. Last week, his royal purpleness moved up to number 2 with "Batdance," it's the number one soundtrack album from the cinema spectacular starring the Darknight Detective. Will Prince go batty at number 1? There's only one way to find out...where D'Shadoc knows...on American Top 40.

2. RICHARD'S RECORD-TIEING TOP TEN ROMP :27

Hi, Shadoc Stevens on AT 40. Last week he became only the second solo artist, ever, to hit the top ten with his first six single releases. The first was Andy Gibb, back in the 1970's. Now, Richard Marx has done it in the 80's. His streak began with the top tenner, "Don't Mean Nothin'" and now continues with Richard's sixth and latest top ten in a row, "Right Here Waiting." We've got the stars who re-write the record books, as we count down the week's biggest hits right here...on American Top 40.
