Hi, I'm Shadoe Stevens, last week on AT40, we talked to Janet Jackson and Toni Braxton about their latest hits ... had the story of the runaway teenage girl who decided to come home because of Soul Asylum's "Runaway Train" ... in AT40 Music News we looked at a new book, 'Elvis, His Life And Cuisine' ... took an AT40 Flashback to the year of Tina Turner's big comeback, with her #1 "What's Love Got To Do With It", that was 1984. Join me this week for all the Billboard hit action and much more, right here, on American Top 40! (LOCAL TAG)

1. Next is Toni Braxton and her first solo Top 40 hit, "ANOTHER SAD LOVE SONG." But only Toni knows how sad it really is...

TONI BRAXTON ACTUALITY: (:35) " 'ANOTHER SAD LOVE SONG', I think it's a great song. L.A. produced it, but Babyface and Darryl Simmons wrote that and they wrote it especially for me so, we talked over some concepts and one of the concepts that I had was, I wanted to talk about, a lot about love, I wanted to show that there were several sides of love... there was always the happier sides of love, you know love was full of tragedies and a lot of hurt and a lot of thorns. You know the relationship is over when, I turn the radio and what do I hear? Another Sad Love Song that reminds me of you and our relationship. I think, I don't want to be depressing all the time, so then I sing songs that are the happier side of life."

2. This one is the latest top ten for Janet Jackson -- a blended musical shake of different styles and sounds and rhythms. Janet told us all about "IF."

JANET JACKSON ACTUALITY: (:11) "Well it's very eclectic, it has, there's a funkiness, there's a rock feel to it, there's a move in the strings and I guess you just have to hear it, it's very eclectic. It's very different. This is it!"
