Casey Kasem, reeling from the effect of 8 major out-of-control fires in the L.A. basin, the worst smog in anyone's memory, and a particularly heavy work schedule, woke up this Wednesday with no voice. Casey's problem was not unique. Quite a few voices were among the missing in L.A. this week.

Fortunately, Robert W. Morgan was in fine form, and he agreed to stand in for Casey on this AMERICAN TOP 40 program: #793-13. Robert, as you may know, is the new morning man at KMPC here, having taken over the retiring 20 year veteran Dick Wittinghill. He is the same Robert W. Morgan who hosts "SPECIAL OF THE WEEK", and he used to be The Robert W. Morgan who did mornings at WIND, Chicago and KHJ, Los Angeles.

I have spoken to the recovering Casey Kasem, and, he croaked, "I'll be just fine by next week".
