TOPICAL PROMOS

AT40 PROMOS FOR SHOW # 864-1 ARE LOCATED AT THE END OF 3A.

DO NOT USE AFTER OCTOBER 5, 1986

1) WILL THE TORTOISE CATCH THE HARE? (:25)

Hi, this is Casey Kasem. For the past five weeks, Carl Anderson and Gloria Loring -- with their duet "FRIENDS AND LOVERS" -- have been moving up the chart one notch at a time. From Number 6 to 5, to 4, to 3, and last week to Number Two. Can Carl and Gloria climb one more notch for the big prize? Or will "STUCK WITH YOU" by Huey Lewis and the News stay glued at Number One for a third week? Stick with us and we'll track all the action on American Top 40.

2) PAUL'S CHARTWARD BOUND (:19)

Hi, this is Casey Kasem. One of the Rock Era's songwriting greats -- the man who gave us "FIFTY WAYS TO LEAVE YOUR LOVER" and the classic "BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WATER" -- may soon be back in the countdown. Paul Simon is climbing the official Billboard Hot 100 with his new song, "YOU CAN CALL ME AL". We'll call him anything he wants -- as long as he joins us -- on American Top 40.

3) CHICAGO HISTORY REPEATED? (:20)

Hi, this is Casey Kasem. 16 years ago, the band Chicago hit Number Four with the song "25 OR 6 TO 4". And now, it looks like that song may hit the Top 40 again in a new version. It's been remade -- by Chicago. Official Billboard chart history in the making. We write a new chapter every week -- on American Top 40.

4) BOSTON'S BACK!

Hi, this is Casey Kasem. If a band hadn't released an album in Eight years, would anybody still want to hear from 'em? Ask the fans of the band called Boston, Boston's back with a new album, and a hit single called "AMANDA" that's heading toward the countdown. Follow the action with me on American Top 40.
