1. RHYTHM NATION'S HIT GYRATIONS :28

Hi, Shadoc Stevens on AT 40. Last week, her song "Miss You Much," the first single from her new album "Rhythm Nation," brought Janet Jackson back to the top of the Billboard chart. But just down below, climbing to #2 with "Cherish," was Madonna. And keep an eye on the Rolling Stones, who leaped from #12 to #6 with "Mixed Emotions." So what will it be: More Janet Jubilation? A Madonna move to #1? Or will the Stones mix it up on top? There's only one way to find out, my friends, when we count 'em down...on American Top 40.

2. NEW KIDS MANIA SWEEPS THE LAND :27

Hey, Shadoc Stevens on AT 40. They're THE hottest act on the charts. Hotter than Bobby Brown. Hotter than Paula Abdul. Hotter than Madonna. Hotter than the Rolling Stones. They recently became the first teen group to have a number one album, and they have THREE songs in the countdown: "Didn't I Blow Your Mind"..."Cover Girl"...and the recent #1 title song from their album "Hangin' Tough." New Kids On The Block mania is sweeping the land, and we've got them right here...on American Top 40.
