THEME IN AND UNDER WITH TALK UNIT ENDING AT:

HOUR 4 TRACK 5 RUN TIME: (Al Capps/Dain Blair/Jeff Koz/Mark Leggett/Who Did That Music, BMI)

1. Earth Wind & Fire are probably the biggest soul group of the 70s and early 80s. We had the pleasure of talking with Phillip Bailey and Verdeen White about the group's ups and downs over the years:

EARTH WIND & FIRE ACTUALITY: (:39) "Paying your dues is probably one of the best things about this whole thing, it's actually easier sometimes to pay your dues than it is to stay up there when you get there. But, we've had our whole stories of getting places and not having the money to get back, and having to do gigs or whatever and we've had to do gigs where we were kind of hustled into doing them and kind of held hostage at the same time! It's just typical stuff."

2. We talked to K.C. Degrate of Jodeci and he told us they've strayed a little musically from where they started out:

JODECI ACTUALITY: (:52) "All of us, the whole group, we're from gospel, we have a strong church background. Parents are very religious devotees and Douvin's father is a minister, so we just like grew up around gospel music, singing, a lot of singing. We did that everyday, seven days a week, twenty four hours a day around the house and church. When we first started, both parents, they didn't want us to do this, it's not the kind of music they want us to go into. They're very happy for our success but, they still can't really take in that we're doing R 'n B instead of gospel, but overall, they're happy, they're glad we're not on the corner selling drugs or you know, so they're satisfied."

3. "OOH CHILD" by Dino may be a remake of the 5 Stairsteps 1970's hit, but it's definitely done Dino-style. He tried to give us an idea of what that style is:

DINO ACTUALITY: (:54) "Funky feeling, mass appealing music for the 90's. It's kind of like a conglomeration of funky pop, sometimes leaning hip-hop, sometimes it can lean 60-70ish, it's really a mesh to me. That's the hardest thing to describe to someone. They say, what kind of music do you do? It's like, you don't just want to say pop because it's not just Pop. And Pop sometimes people don't know what that, they think of it in a different light and today, Pop music is just what's popular, I mean P.M. Dawn is Pop music, it's popular. I hate to describe it and put a boundary on it, or color on it, black music... I hate to do that, so I came up with that quote. Ha ha ha."
