AT40 ACTUALITIES w. SHOW #45

1. OWEN HUSNEY ON PRINCE ACTUALITY: 1:34

Recently, we had a chance to meet a man who launched an amazing career. You may not know his name, but OWEN HUSNEY is the man who discovered Prince. The Place Minneapolis. The Year: 1976

"I was actually a concert promoter and figured I might as well dabble in management and this kid shows up in my lobby one day -- this young white kid named Chris Moon. I listened to the tape and it was great and I said 'Hey this sounds real -- who's the group?' And he said 'well sit down-- it's one guy playing all the instruments singing everything, writing everything -- his name is Prince Nelson. I called him there and I talked to him and I said: "Hey are you really doing all this -- and you're really how old? Sixteen? And I said well come on back here and let's get something going. That's really how it started. This is not one of these stories where I made him a genius -- he was a genius -- anything that had to be done for him had to be done in a first class manner. So the first thing was I had to raise some money to take to a couple lawyers doctors raised 50, 60 thousand dollars and essentially we spent the next two years together -- him hanging at the house, and us doing the laundry, fixing his hair, fryin' eggs -- it really was a parent/slash/management role. He had his convictions and he was tough to argue with because he was a very bright guy. You could just be swearing at him behind his back wondering why you were in his to begin with and he could just turn around, come around the corner and he'd say 'hey listen to this song' and you'd go 'oh my God..' everything else would go away because you knew this had to be protected, regardless of the source it was coming from. There was gift here that needed nurturing and getting to the next step."

2. GIN BLOSSOMS ACTUALITY: 41

We talked to Phil from the Gin Blossoms and he told us what they've gotten of of near non-stop touring for the past two years:

"Now we have a bus for the first time, but before that a van, and that gets really tight. 'Cause you know -- Five guys and a road manager with a trailer in tow. We used to tour so cheap. In a 20 hour drive we'd just get so sick of it. Robin bought this TV that hooks into the cigarette lighter - it has a little video-cassette player on it and we'd just watch 'Spartacus' or something. And that made it better - I guess."

2. MEATLOAF ACTUALITY:

Been wondering about the Mystery Woman on the Meatloaf's big comeback hit. Her name is 'Mrs. Loud' and Meatloaf told us all about her:

"Mrs. Loud is named Lorraine Crosby. That's the name of her Band -- Mrs. Loud. She's loud - I don't know if that has anything to do with it. She's an MCA artist after she did this with us - She's from Newcastle, England, she's never done anything She making a record now. She's just an absolutely wonderful person. She kept saying the whole time, "I understand if you take me off" -- and we'd brought her in just to lay the female part on so we could just see what it was. And I lived with it -- I was gonna have Melissa Etheridge do it -- and as we lived with the song I just fell in love with her and thought it was magic. And then she came back in and we just had her do it again. She's a truly wonderful human being. "
