DO NOT USE AFTER SHOW #891-12

1. TONE LOC'S LOOSE AGAIN :20
 Hi, Shadoe Stevens on American Top 40. This rapper from Los Angeles had the biggest selling single since "WE ARE THE WORLD" with his first hit. He sold two million copies of "WILD THING." It's still in the countdown, and now, Tone Loc's doin' it again on the Billboard Chart, climbing fast with his follow up called "FUNKY COLD MEDINA." If it debuts, Tone Loc could Rap us twice on American Top 40.

2. THE MATERIAL GIRL RETURNS LIKE A PRAYER :22
 Hey, Shadoe Stevens on American Top 40. Recently, she unveiled her latest single in a new soft drink commercial. And you can bet that if Madonna has released a new record...it's going to hit the chart. And she might even come onto the entire "Billboard Hot 100" Chart way up in the Top 40. Can She? Will She? Ahhh...D'Shadoe knows counting down the week's biggest hits...on American Top 40.

3. THIS ONE'S FOR DAD :21
 Hi, Shadoe Stevens on American Top 40. Last week, Debbie Gibson stayed at number 1 with her current hit "LOST IN YOUR EYES." But climbing up to number 2 was "THE LIVING YEARS" by Mike and the Mechanics. Band leader Mike Rutherford calls it "the most personal song he's ever written"...he wrote it for his late father. Will his tribute hit the top? We'll find out, as we countdown the official Billboard Chart...on American Top 40.

4. "ROARIN' RECORD SETTERS :22
 Hey, Shadoe Stevens on American Top 40. And look who's back, roarin' up the official Billboard Chart. It's Def Leppard, with "ROCKET," the latest release from their album "HYSTERIA." If it blasts into the countdown, Def Leppard will tie an album record held only by Michael Jackson and Bruce Springsteen. Join me for the record makers, record breakers, and all the details this week on American Top 40.
