1. HE MARX THE SPOT ON TOP :23

Hey, Shadoe Stevens on AT 40. Last week, he scored his third number one in a row, following "Hold On To The Nights" and "Satisfied." Richard Marx returned to number one on the official Billboard chart with "Right Here Waiting." But just below was Bobby Brown with "On Our Own." Will it be Richard who Marx the top spot again this week? Or will Bobby score another number one? There's only one way to find out...when we count 'em down...on American Top 40.

2. MOVES AND GROOVES TO DEBUT :26

Hi, Shadoe Stevens on AT 40. And these hot acts are looking countdown-bound on the official Billboard chart. There's Neneh Cherry, with her follow-up to "Buffalo Stance" called "Kisses On The Wind." There's Katrina and The Waves back with "That's The Way." And there's England's The Cure, coming up fast with "Love Song." Who's got the right grooves for debut chart moves this week? Ahhh...D'Shadoe knows...on American Top 40.
