1. HANGIN' WITH THE NEW KIDS :24

Hey, Shadoe Stevens on AT 40. And look who were "Hangin' Tough" on top last week...New Kids On The Block became only the third teen group in the rock era to have two number one's on the Billboard chart. They follow in the footsteps of The Fleetwoods and The Jackson Five. The New Kids hit #1 with "I'll Be Loving You (Forever)" and now "Hangin' Tough," the title track from their #1 album. We've got the scintillating stars who are re-writing the record books each week...on American Top 40.

2. JUST ANOTHER HISTORIC HIT WEEK :32

Hi, Shadoe Stevens on AT 40. And last week, it was yet another history making musical scramble up the official Billboard chart. The Rolling Stones debuted in the countdown with their 40th top 40 hit, "Mixed Emotions." From the past years hottest producing team, Babyface debuted with his first solo hit...a recent #1 on the Black singles chart called "It's No Crime." And the first woman ever to get six top 40 hits from one album returned to take chart control again...Janet Jackson was back with a new one, "Miss You Much." Don't miss this week's hit action and reaction when we count 'em down...on American Top 40.
