1. HOT ACTS, COUNTDOWN BOUND :26

Hey, Shadoe Stevens on AT40. And some of the hottest acts on the official Billboard chart look countdown-bound this week. The Cover Girls could pose with "My Heart Skips A Beat". Gloria Estefan may dance in with "Get On Your Feet". Richard Marx may make his move with a new song, "Angelia". And Milli Vanilli could shower us with their latest, "Blame It On The Rain". Who'll dazzle us and debut this week? Ah, D'Shadoe knows -- on American Top 40.

2. BATTLE OF THE BRITISH-AMERICAN SEXES :31

Hi, Shadoe Stevens on AT40, and it could be a battle of the sexes, British and American, on the Billboard chart. Last week, at #1 was American Janet Jackson with "Miss You Much" and at #2 was American Madonna with "Cherish". But just below and climbing was the English band The Cure with "Love Song", and English legends The Rolling Stones with "Mixed Emotions". Will Janet or Madonna keep the stars and stripes at #1? Or will The Cure or The Stones send the Union Jack flying up on top? There's only one way to find out, my friends, when we count 'em down -- on American Top 40.
