1. "BY THE TIME THIS NIGHT IS OVER" by Peabo Bryson and Kenny G... We asked Kenny if he's had the chance to play with any of his music heroes:

KENNY G ACTUALITY: (:40) "I played with Grover Washington Jr. one night. He asked me to sit in with him at a club in Chicago and there's a song I've played since I was in high school called "MR. MAGIC" which is one of his, I don't know how big a hit it was, but in the saxophone community, it was the standard. There was no better song than "MR. MAGIC" and he asked me to sit in with him on that song and looking at him while we were trading our ideas back and forth, saxophone player to saxophone player, I realized that I was no longer the student. This was four year, five years ago... I'm not a student anymore, I'm not a kid! I'm as good as him! I'm his equal, and in his eyes, I could tell he was looking at me like, yep, I'm just playing to you like another sax player. You're not like a kid, and that really made me feel good."

2. Maybe you've wondered how and why JON Bon Jovi got into rock'n'roll in the first place: the girls?.. the glory? Fame and fortune? Jon says it was none of those.

JON BON JOVI ACTUALITY: (:34) "The idea of playing in a rock'n'roll band of course is most people's dream, you know, everybody from, I don't know, John Lennon trying to be Elvis to Tom Cruise in 'Risky Business' played a tennis racquet, right? And stood in the mirror... everybody jumped in front of the mirror at one time or another. And I was getting much too small to play football! There was not anything else to gain anyone's attention so I took up playing music and wanted to sing and started playing guitar and one thing led to another and it's worked! Ha ha ha."

3. Taylor Dayne has a dynamite version of the Barry White hit "CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF YOUR LOVE". It was her record company president's idea to cut the song. So when did Barry first hear about it?

BARRY WHITE ACTUALITY: (:54) "I was in the studio when Clive called me. Clive Davis is a very dear and old friend of mine and he was so excited over the record, he called me he was screaming. He was so excited. When he played that record on the phone, I told him you got an out and out smash. They produced that record. They arranged that track and they didn't take it far from the original. That's what was interesting because when I first heard it on the phone, I thought they shackled my strength, because I mix strength a certain way, I'm the only person in this world that mixes strength the way I mix and I can hear that air. So either they copied the mix or they sampled it, and I was thrilled to death to hear her do such a dynamic job, yeah, very proud of that one. This is the first time a female's covered Barry White. Taylor Dayne and her great producers really nailed that record."

4. Next is the latest top ten hit for EXPOSE, "I'LL NEVER GET OVER YOU, (GETTING OVER ME)"... written by the very successful DIANE WARREN. Diane will often work in the studio with the artists. Expose told us what it's like working with her:

EXPOSE ACTUALITY: (:30) "She's really funny, a wild woman, she's a lot of fun. We call her the bird woman because she has so many birds. She would bring her pet cockatoo into the studio. She has pocket parrots and all kinds of birds. Now we all want one. Except me, I'm totally frightened of birds. They scare me to death. We have to force it on Ann, we're just like putting it on her shoulder when she wasn't looking. And she's backing away. Animals dive on you, you know, so if you're just kind of tentative, they just (makes screeching noise). They know that you're nervous. They pick on you!"
